

Cabell County Youth Empowerment Program

Kelly Plantz, Student Support Specialist

Congratulations to John DeBerry!!

John received his GED on May 23, 2007. He accomplished many things while enrolled in the Cabell County Youth Empowerment Program. John graduated from the Read Right program, and received a certificate of completion.

He also attended many of the job readiness workshops, where he developed an impressive resume and job portfolio. He put his employment skills to work and has been employed for quite some time now. John also completed the job training component at the Huntington School of Fine Woodwork. He received a certificate of completion and has mastered some excellent woodcraft skills. Congratulations and Best of Luck John!!

If you need job skills, and a GED, the Cabell County Youth Empowerment Program may be just what you need.

We are currently accepting applications for the new class which will begin in August. If you would like more information, please call (304) 522-0576 or stop by our office at 1448 10th Avenue, Room #224.

Neighborhood Network Coming Soon!

Neighborhood Network is set to open August 17 at the former Scott Community Center in the 1600 block of 8th Avenue. This program will include after school educational activities, job-training classes, and health and nutrition classes. There will also be an internet café that will double as a technology training center.

The job training component will include GED preparation, resume writing, and basic computer skills. The health training will include such activities as cooking, nutrition, smoking cessation, exercise, and counseling classes.

We look forward to the Neighborhood Network project getting underway. We would welcome anyone who would like to volunteer their time, talents, and abilities. If you are interested, please call (304) 522-0576.
