On June 16, students attended the WorkForce WV Career Fair located at the Big Sandy Superstore Arena. The students were able to talk to a wide variety of employers, colleges, and training centers.

Certificates were given out to the following students for their excellence in the classroom for the month of May:

Perfect Attendance: Anthony Jenkins and Kandyce Rogers.

Hardest Workers in the Classroom: Dusti Davis and

Amber Douglas

Robert McGuffin was awarded certificates for the best attendance and hardest worker in the GED classroom in June.

Brooke Goodall has completed 144 hours of on-the-job training with CCYEP. She worked in the CCYEP office and helped with various clerical tasks.

“Brooke will be a great contributor to the community based on her performance and work ethic,” says Trudi Faulkenberry, program clerk. Brooke will be attending phlebotomy school at Triad Industries in August.
