

New R.O.S.S. Program To Help Residents Earn Money, Find Employment

Mark Killen, ROSS Coordinator

My name is Mark Killen and I am the new R.O.S.S. Program Coordinator. I am very excited about this program. I come to this position with a wide and varied background. I have been a Pastor, hospital Chaplain, Mechanic, Woodworker, Electrician, Business Owner, and a Cable Guy, though I'm not related to Larry the Cable Guy!

The Huntington Housing Authority is excited to introduce to you a new program that adds to the many services that we already have to serve you. The program, called Resident Opportunities and Self Sufficiency, is designed to help you make money by training you in the exciting fields of Building and Maintenance. Whether you already have your GED or High School diploma or whether you still need to earn your degree, you may qualify for the program. The exciting part of the program is that it will help you in all parts of your life. From learning a trade, to living a well-balanced life, the ROSS Program is designed to help you overcome all the barriers that are keeping you from being successful in finding a job and making money so that you can be completely self-sufficient.

The Program will teach you the skills you need to be successful in the field of Building and Maintenance. You will learn about building, woodworking, janitorial sciences, safe working practices, resume writing, job hunting, and we will assist you in overcoming any barriers that have gotten in the way of your being successful in the work place.

So who will benefit from the new ROSS Program? We're looking for men and women from 25-65 with a willingness to work hard, a desire to improve themselves, and the courage to grow. That's it! We'll supply the rest.

If this sounds like you, then call our ROSS Program office at 529-3900. We're in room 204 in the Douglass Centre. Or be on the lookout for our flyers that will soon be posted in your community!

Space is limited to the first 20 people who meet the eligibility requirements. So call today - 529-3900.
